AN APPEAL

Raise your voice against the atrocities committed by the C-60 Commando force!

On 7 July 2013, the notorious C-60 commandos engaged in anti-Naxal operations brutally murdered six women comrades of a guerilla unit of the CPI(Maoist) in front of the villagers after torturing them in Medri village of Gadchiroli district in the state of Maharashtra, India. These mercenary C-60 forces belonging to Maharashtra Police not only indulged in sadistic and repulsive behaviour towards the dead bodies of our fallen comrades, but even made video clippings of their abominable acts and are selling these clips and screening them publicly in the villages.

Raise your voice against this atrocious act of dishonouring the dead bodies of women revolutionaries by the C-60 commando force!
